“Conviction” for this application, means a final judgement or verdict of guilty, a plea of guilty, or a plea of nolo contendere, in any state or federal court, regardless of whether an appeal is pending or could be taken. “Conviction” does not include a final judgement or verdict that has been expunged by pardon, reversed, set aside or otherwise rendered invalid. Further, you are not required to disclose any arrest(s), criminal charge(s) or conviction(s) the record(s) or which have been erased under law. Such records can include records of a finding of delinquency or that a child was a member of a family with service needs, adjudication of youthful offender status, criminal charges dismissed or nolle, or charges for which a person is found not guilty or a conviction later resulting in an absolute pardon. Further, any person whose criminal records have been erased is deemed under law never to have been arrested with respect to such erased proceedings and may so swear under oath. A history of criminal conviction(s) will not necessarily bar consideration for employment. Factors, such as the time, seriousness and nature of the offense, as well as rehabilitation, will be taken into account.
